

Oxeye Daisy is a rhizomatous perennial growing 1'-2' tall with flowers similar to daisies. Another member of the sunflower family this plant is native to Eurasia and has often been transplanted as an ornamental. It flowers from June – August, moves along watersheds creating monocultures and choking out native vegetation.